The plaintiff, Jimmy Culpepper, Jr. (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se, brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff is an inmate at Allendale Correctional Institution, a facility of the South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC), and he files this action in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. The complaint appears to name several employees of a governmental entity as defendants.<sup>2</sup> Plaintiff claims that the defendants violated his Constitutional due process rights in relation to his participation in the Community Supervision Program, and he brings a claim pursuant to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages. The two South Carolina defendants should be dismissed without prejudice based upon immunity.<sup>3</sup>

Pro Se Review pursuant to the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA)

Under established local procedure in this judicial district, a careful review has been made of the pro se complaint pursuant to the procedural provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915; 28 U.S.C. § 1915A; and the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA), Pub. L. No. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321 (1996). This review has been conducted in light of the following precedents: Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25 (1992); Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324-25 (1989); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972); Nasim v. Warden, Md. House of Corr., 64 F.3d 951 (4th Cir. 1995) (en banc); Todd v. Baskerville, 712 F.2d 70 (4th Cir. 1983). The complaint herein has been filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, which permits an indigent litigant to commence an action in federal court without prepaying the administrative costs of proceeding with the lawsuit. To protect against possible abuses of this privilege, the statute allows a district court to dismiss the case upon a finding that the action “fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted,” “is frivolous or malicious,” or “seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief.” Title 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). A finding of frivolity can be made where the complaint “lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. at 31. Hence, under § 1915(e)(2)(B), a claim based on a meritless legal theory may be dismissed sua sponte. Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319 (1989); Allison v. Kyle, 66 F.3d 71 (5th Cir. 1995). Further, the plaintiff is a prisoner under the definition in 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(c), and “seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). Thus, even if the plaintiff had prepaid the full filing fee, this court is charged with screening the plaintiff’s lawsuit to identify cognizable claims or to dismiss the complaint if (1) it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or (2) seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

This court is required to liberally construe pro se documents, Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89 (2007), holding them to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys. Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976); Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 9 (1980) (per curiam). Even under this less stringent standard, however, a portion of the pro se complaint is subject to summary dismissal. The mandated liberal construction afforded to pro se pleadings means that if the court can reasonably read the pleadings to state a valid claim on which the plaintiff could prevail, it should do so, but a district court may not rewrite a petition to include claims that were never presented, Barnett v. Hargett, 174 F.3d 1128, 1133 (10th Cir. 1999), or construct the plaintiff’s legal arguments for him, Small v. Endicott, 998 F.2d 411, 417-18 (7th Cir. 1993), or “conjure up questions never squarely presented” to the court, Beaudett v. City of Hampton, 775 F.2d 1274, 1278 (4th Cir. 1985). The requirement of liberal construction does not mean that the court can ignore a clear failure in the pleading to allege facts which set forth a claim currently cognizable in a federal district court. Weller v. Dep’t of Soc. Servs., 901 F.2d 387 (4th Cir. 1990).

Discussion

“State sovereign immunity is a bedrock principle of ‘Our Federalism.’” Virginia v. Reinhard, 568 F.3d 110, 115 (4th Cir. 2009) (citation omitted). When the States entered the Union they consented to a system of dual sovereignty and did not agree to become mere appendages of the Federal Government. Id. The Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution reflects the foundational principle of sovereign immunity because it divests this Court of jurisdiction to entertain a suit brought against the State of South Carolina or its integral parts, such as a State agency or department. See Id. The Eleventh Amendment provides, “[t]he Judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by Citizens of another State, or by Citizens or Subjects of any Foreign State.” E.g., Fed. Maritime Comm. v. South Carolina State Ports Auth., 535 U.S. 743, 747 (2002); Bd. of Trustees of Univ. of Alabama v. Garrett, 531 U.S. 356 (2001); Kimel v. Florida Bd. of Regents, 528 U.S. 62 (2000) (Congress exceeded its authority in making Age Discrimination in Employment Act [ADEA] applicable to States); Bellamy v. Borders, 727 F. Supp. 247, 248-250 & nn. 2-3 (D.S.C. 1989); Coffin v. South Carolina Dep’t of Soc. Serv., 562 F. Supp. 579, 583-585 (D.S.C. 1983); and Belcher v. South Carolina Bd. of Corr., 460 F. Supp. 805, 808-809 (D.S.C. 1978). See also Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89 (1984) (although express language of Eleventh Amendment only forbids suits by citizens of other States against a State, Eleventh Amendment bars suits against a State filed by its own citizens).

Under Pennhurst State Sch. & Hosp., a State must expressly consent to suit in a federal district court. Id. The State of South Carolina has not consented to suit in a federal court. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-20(e) (1976) (statute expressly provides that the State of South Carolina does not waive Eleventh Amendment immunity, consents to suit only in a court of the State of South Carolina, and does not consent to suit in a federal court or in a court of another State). It is clear that the South Carolina Department of Corrections, Department of Classification & Programs, and the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole & Pardon Services are departments of the State of South Carolina and function as arms of the State. See Belcher, 460 F. Supp. at 808-809. Plaintiff alleges that he is bringing suit against each of those defendants pursuant to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act and that he seeks relief up to the limits of the Tort Claims Act. Thus, because Plaintiff seeks money damages from arms of the State of South Carolina, this action is barred in this court. Accordingly, the defendants South Carolina Department of Corrections, Department of Classification & Programs and South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole & Pardon Services should be dismissed without prejudice based upon Eleventh Amendment immunity. Cf. Johnson v. Ozmint, 456 F.Supp.2d 688, 697 (D.S.C. 2006) (in a removed case, the defendant South Carolina Department of Corrections agreed that the federal court had supplemental jurisdiction over the S.C. Tort Claims Act claim).

Recommendation

It is recommended that the District Court dismiss the defendants South Carolina Department of Corrections, Department of Classification & Programs and South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole & Pardon Services without prejudice and without issuance and service of process. See Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324-25 (1989); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972); and 28 U.S.C. § 1915A (as soon as possible after docketing, district courts should review prisoner cases to determine whether they are subject to summary dismissal). The plaintiff's attention is directed to the important notice on the next page.
